Bold. Black. Brand New.

The advantage of a new home, is well, that it is new...

Sometimes, that involves a wait - while the home is planned, constructed and then finished. At the moment, that could be a lengthy time frame.

Not here. If a brand new three bedroom house in Onerahi has been on your list, then you can go ahead and cross it off, you have found it!

What you will also find here is lock and leave convenience, double glazing, open plan living, insulation throughout, outdoor entertaining areas, and a double car internal access garage.

With the added advantage of a 10 year NZ Certified Builders guarantee, you are well catered for with years of comfortable living.

The colour black is not easily misunderstood. In design it is dramatic and helps create a feeling of certainty.

That same feeling of certainty comes with purchasing this quality property.

Welcome home.

Agent profile

Paul Sumich

Coffee, Property, and Paul.

When you combine that with the team at Bayleys in the North, then it's altogether better. His hard work, charisma, and true passion for the business has helped Paul's reputation as a qualified real estate professional quickly rise.

"Just as the Real Estate industry evolves to become more innovative and efficient, so do I."

He provides exceptional Real Estate services to ensure you feel confident with your decision to engage him with your property sale. He is unapologetically competitive, with a tenacious spirit born from years of endurance sport and small business ownership, he is definitely someone that you want in your corner.

He will play hard for you, but always fair. To the moon - and back. Done.

Client focused in his approach, Paul revels in the one-on-one. It's about providing a valuable service while putting it all together. Dedicated, disciplined, and easy going, Paul's skillset ranges wide; from selling some of the best character homes in Whangarei, to unique coastal and lifestyle properties. The level of trust is extremely high, with some of the biggest deals having been done away from the standard very public campaigns. Paul is anything but standard...

He's fast paced, optimistic and confident - everywhere but in a kayak. With a strong morning coffee (or two!) at home in Maunu before the family heads out the door.

Along with all of the people in between. That's what Paul calls happy days.

What the area offers

Northland – New Zealand’s first region

Northland is situated to the North of Auckland and stretches to the top of the North Island. With its semi-tropical climate, the region is known as the “Winterless North”, and is among our top holiday destinations with one of the sunniest, warmest climates of any region in New Zealand.

Whangarei – first City of the Winterless North

The main city, Whangarei, has a population of around 70,000 people and a quiet, relaxed atmosphere. It is close to several beautiful sandy beaches, and offers shops to suit all budgets, as well as cafes, bars, nightclubs and restaurants reflecting the city’s international community. A regular bus service provides a safe and cost-effective link to Auckland, New Zealand’s largest city, which can be reached in only two hours by road and 30 minutes by air.

Whangarei is only an hour drive away from the beautiful Bay of Islands

The cost of living and accommodation in Whangarei is much lower than in Auckland, and there is considerably less traffic. It is a small city which is relatively compact, making it easy to get around by walking, cycling or using a local bus service. A variety of accommodation types is available to international students in Whangarei, ranging from hostels and shared houses to homestay accommodation with local families – an excellent way to improve your English, and to learn about life in New Zealand.

Sports

If you like water based or outdoors activities then you’re coming to the right place:

- The Poor Knights Islands offer the best subtropical diving in the world and beautiful snorkelling.
- Plenty of surfing, windsurfing, kitesurfing or paddle boarding, and boogie boarding is safe fun for everyone else.
- Many fishing records have been broken along the Northland coast, catch Snapper from the jetties or go big game fishing for Marlin.
- Read the National Geographic article about the famous Tutukaka Coast
- Learn to sail or captain a power boat - you don't need a licence.
- Explore the harbours and bays in a kayak, the coastline is ideal for exploration.
- Learn to row with a fast Polynesian style Waka Ama (outrigger canoe).
- Golfing, there are four Golf courses in Whangarei and several others in driving distance.

Cafes and Restaurants

There is a thriving and ever growing restaurant and cafe scene offering creative Kiwi cuisine and seafood or exotic dishes from around the world. Northland baristas have won numerous awards as well, so you’ll never be short of an excellent latte.

Some consider Whangarei’s Town Basin the jewel in the crown with art galleries, cafes and shops that attract tourists and locals, great for a stroll on a weekend or dinner in the evening.

What the area offers

Events and Nightlife

While Whangarei is more renowned for its natural life than its nightlife, there is a lively bar scene, with a number of websites dedicated to events and live music venues. The artist community also continues to add creative events and venues throughout the year while the Council sponsors free concerts, festivals and open air cinema. Exciting events are spread throughout the year, for example Maori festivals, agricultural field days, rodeos, boat fairs, fun walks, rally championships, Scottish highland games, open air cinema, flower shows, horse and dog races and shows, music festivals, fishing tournaments etc.

Shopping

- Whangarei has branches of most national chain stores and a big number of specialist retail shops and service providers.
- Fresh produce can be bought in farmers markets, the Whangarei Growers Market is the oldest grower's market in Australasia, with up to 6,500 visitors each weekend! Fresh, high quality local produce, much of it organic, all locally grown and often sold personally by the growers. Whatever the weather fruit, vegetable, plant and flower growers plus honey, egg, bread, organic beef and oyster producers set up their stalls early every Saturday morning.
- Northland provides a wide range of school and education services. The schools provide academic, cultural and skills based learning and technology.
- The school year runs from January to December and is divided into four terms. The longest break makes the most of our fabulous summer, beginning in December and restarting in February.

Education

- Most Whangarei suburbs offer privately owned day care facilities for your child.
- Primary, Intermediate & Secondary Schools
- Primary Schools cater for children from year 1 up to year 6, with children attending an Intermediate School for years 7 and 8.
- All Primary and Intermediate Schools are co-educational, i.e. teaching both girls and boys. Secondary schools cater for children from year 9 to year 13 who then may then attend university or other tertiary establishments.
- State Schools are funded by the Government however some private or State Integrated schools in the Whangarei District are partially or completely privately funded, and may have religious affiliations.

Tertiary Institutes

- NorthTec and The University of Auckland Faculty of Education (Tai Tokerau Campus) run full degree courses in Whangarei.
- NorthTec offers a wide range of vocational subjects up to a Diploma level. It provides industry-focused education, with flexible learning options. The University of Auckland offers a range of education / teacher training.
- Te Wananga o Aotearoa is one of New Zealand's largest tertiary education providers and is guided by Māori principles and values. A comprehensive range of certificate to degree qualifications is offered including courses in small business, computing, social work, teaching, Māori performing arts and te reo Māori to New Zealanders of all ages and walks of life.
